Shop for a good cause on “First Thursdays”

Modern home goods store offers extended hours & proceeds to benefit Detroit

Detroit, MI – Detroit’s new modern home goods shop, BUREAU OF URBAN LIVING, is pleased to introduce First Thursdays, a special monthly event at their shop on West Canfield Street in Midtown Detroit, across from Traffic Jam & Snug.

First Thursdays feature:

- Extended store hours: 11 AM – 9 PM
- Special offers on featured products, with discounts up to 50% off
- Percent of proceeds to benefit Detroit’s public realm

Owners Claire Nelson and Francis Grunow are excited for this opportunity to showcase and support local organizations that are doing great work to enhance our city. The store will donate 25% of sales on the first Thursday of every month to a local initiative with a focus on the physical city.

Beneficiaries include:

- October 4: Cityscape Detroit (www.cityscapedetroit.org)
- November 1: Transportation Riders United (www.detroittransit.org)
- December 6: Greening of Detroit (www.greeningofdetroit.com)

Says Nelson, “Quality of life isn’t just about having nice stuff. It’s about improving our environment, inside and out. These organizations work everyday to advocate for the things that make for a healthy, vibrant metropolis: mass transit, historic preservation, parks and public spaces – just to name a few. Supporting their work is part of BUREAU’s mission to celebrate the joys of city life and encourage more people to live downtown.”

BUREAU OF URBAN LIVING is open Tuesdays-Saturdays, 11 AM – 7 PM at 460 W. Canfield Street in Midtown Detroit. A modern-day general store for city dwellers, BUREAU offers modern accessories for the home and office. For more info, visit www.bureauliving.com.
